

Gertrude Wood
Community
Foundation

CONNECT 4 PROJECT

FAIRWOOD AVENUE OVERPASS

Walter Cates Sr.
Community Activist
Legend

James A. Johnson
Community Activist
Legend

Eddie Rickenbacker
Flying Ace – WWI
Champion Race Car Driver

Granville T. Woods
Scientist/Inventor

Sample Murals

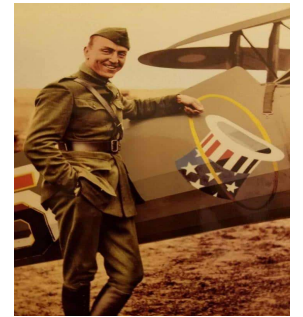

ARTIST: Ellen Rutt
INSPIRATION: "The Danger of a Single Story" — Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's 2009 TED talk She won an Anisfield-Wolf Book Award for her novel "Half of a Yellow Sun" in 2007.
LOCATION: Underpass pillars on I-90W

Sample Murals

- Address: Washington Avenue between West 25th and West 28th streets
- Artist: Ananda Nahu

Additional Information

- The site will serve as a constant reminder of individuals that rose to leadership in the Driving Park Community through hard work and perseverance. Their legacies will inspire youth in the community to strive to excel to higher heights!
- The mural will keep the memories of these 4 strong pillars of society before the community and present in our hearts and minds!
- The project will remain in the community for generations to come as the Connect 4 Partners will keep it alive and vibrant through it's continued care and partnership.

Community Connectors

Non-Profits
Schools
Communities
Entrepreneurs